Ithuriel said: Once upon a time I was an atom, whirling through space. I have been chief of an Ion. I have been king of a corpuscle of light; it was composed of more than ten thousand atoms. I have been a crystal time and time again. I have been a spore, a fungus, a lily, an oak. I have been a bee, a bird, a beast. I have lived in the air, in the water, in the earth and on the earth. I have been all kinds of men, from the lowest to the highest. I have had a million mothers, from molecule to man. I have been a savage, a cannibal, a pagan. I have lived by the chase, I have practiced law, I have commanded armies. I have been murdered, have been drowned, have committed suicide. I sailed with Argo; was burned in the circus at Rome. Afterwards, while enjoying a very happy earthly existence, I, was killed by an accident. Here there is a hiatus. It may be a year, it may be a hundred centuries. We take no note of time that lies behind us. We do not miss the space during which we sleep. I lost myself. Was I eaten? Had I been carried away? Was I indeed asleep? What had happened.? 2. It is a pleasure at times to leave memory behind us. The earth may be likened to a convict colony....
