By Ana Maria Leiva Aguilera

GRIN Verlag GmbH. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 38 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 0.1in. Essay from the year 2013 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, grade: 9, 0, University of Jan, course: 3, language: English, abstract: As Carmelo Medina Casado wonderfully says in his book Poetas ingleses del S. XX (P. 257), en el pasado hubo una tendencia a considerar a la poeta escrita por mujeres como de un estatus inferior. His task had been infravalorada y hasta cierto punto abandonada, something that of course, would not been a radical change, above all during the second half of last century. It resulted to be in some of the cases, as the present author, a heroine for their readers who end up to identify themselves with that mixed feeling which is going to appear in many of her poems and will be object of study in this task, together with her nihilist interpretation of life. It would have no sense the simple method of quoting this authors biographical data and some of her works. That would not focus on her literary labour. That is why I propose myself to comment both her life as well as...
