A country school would choose I, II, and IV; a village or city school, I. III, IV. If the management should not care to offer preparation for the classical type of college. Curriculum I might be loft out. COST OF NEW HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM. Curriculum No. I is now in general use and consequently no estimates of cost need be given. AGRICULTURAL CURRICULUM. 1. Equipment. The laboratories would not cost more than those now in use in the approved high schools. Indeed, no new laboratories would be needed. Eventually, some land would be needed for demonstration purposes and some greenhouse construction would be needed. In most places a small plot of land near the school could be rented, if there is not one already belonging to the school. The greenhouse could usually...
