SUNDERED

Tate Publishing Company, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. How far is too far? Sunder was under heavy economic duress. The government decided to kick in an extreme plan to relieve the deficit that the country was rapidly accumulating. Over the span of a decade, the government was finally able to remove the debt that was harming Sunder by eliminating anything and anyone that caused a deficit. But at what cost? Only a third of the population survived. Jonathon Richtor, a discredited reporter who has struggled since the eradication, began to care for himself and his sister. With the entire country in ruins and resources becoming extremely limited, life became more and more hellish as each day passed. To make matters worse for him, Jonathon s sister, Madison, was ill. Not able to handle the stress of moving place to place, Jonathon was able to find a shelter to keep her. But alas, it was short-lived as Madison had run out of medication and would need it in order to survive. With no other options to consider, he turns to River Rutherford to get Madison the care she needs. Join Jonathon, Madison, and River in Sundered as they push themselves to their limits in a world that is plagued by warfare and constant struggle.
