Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Grace Beeson is a young woman who wakes up and finds herself alone on the Kansas prairie. Injured and suffering from amnesia, the frightened woman is rescued by a handsome horse rancher, Cole Matthews, who offers to take Grace to a nearby town for medical assistance, with the hopes of finding her family. Ms. Millie, owner of the Boarding House, takes Grace under her wing and nurses her back to health. As time passes, with no word of who she is or where she came from, Grace finds her heartstrings being tugged by the handsome rancher, as well as a wealthy businessman who is staying in the same boarding house. Grace quickly learns to care for the people of Garden City. Once strangers, now like family, a substitute for the family she longs to remember. A mysterious diary is discovered not far from where Grace had been rescued. As she reads the heartbreaking details from the weathered pages, she realizes that the unfamiliar book is hers. The truth is unmistakable. In her own hand, she reads...
