Ghuffoor Khan, and afterwards to seek shelter from the excesses of the troops in the fort of Gungraur, a possession of the Holkar family, which had been temporarily assigned to Zalim Singh, Regent of Kotah. Tantia J ogh, who had returned from Kotah supported by all the influence of Zalim Singh, began at this period to take a very considerable lead in the affairs of government. ever, nearly being ruined by a plan which Meenah Baee had concerted, to seize him and others in order to pay the troops with the plunder of their property, and place the administration in the hands of Ram Deen. The latter had just arrived at Gungraur with his corps, and was accompanied by his brother. who was not only possessed of property, but from being the renter of several large districts, had connected himself with some of the richest bankers at Oojein, onei of whom had accompanied him to Gungraur for the purpose of giving the troops who supported the projected change an adequate security for their arrears and future pay. He was, how This man, whose name is Mukhum Lil, commonly called Joshee, is well educated, and a man of business. He has long been a prominent actor in scenes of rapine, and by that and other means has acquired...
