Her main character finds himself in the same predicament as the main character of Murder, Secrets and Injustice in a Small Town , except this young man stands up for his woman. In standing up for her he finds out that without money and bigwigs to help you hide your secret you get served justice so is this truly justice served? A small town where injustices regarding murder were once known to happen won t allow it to happen again. What happens when you have no money to pay off witnesses and police? What happens when there is just you against the world? In small town Cherryfield, Maine, where rumors run rampant, who do you believe and when do you believe? Romance, murder and mayhem abound in this tale of justice but is it truly justice? Follow Ana in her struggle for strength and romance in this unforgiving tale of justice.
