Within the shadow of Pawnee Rock many famous Indian battle3 were fought, battles that never found a place in United States history, but were described to the early white settlers, by descendants of the noble warriors of the plains who took part 5n them. Countless bones have been dug out of the soil adjacent to the Rock, and they bear chool Building in the town being incorporated. The first set of officers were elected April 1, 1887. Previous to the election a rather exciting campaign was carried on by the two opposing factions, the main issue being pool rooms, and whether or not they should continue in the town. There were two tickets in the field and after the votes had been counted it was found that a part of each ticket had been elected and the first council cf Pawnee Rock was composed of the following gentlemen, all of them men who had an interest in the town and stood for progress and growth: William Bunting, and everything and more than is found ii many towns of twice its population. The present officers of Pawnee Rock are: John Bowman, mayor; A. S. Gross, cleru; R. G. McDougal, E. L. Robinson, W. C. Lamb and Grant Lippincott, councilmen. Pawnee Rock contains some of the nicest and most modern residences in Barton County. It is a supply point for a large territory in Barton, Pawnee and Stafford counties and us a shipping...
