

The Little Loony Tales: Hatched

By Lizzie Jack

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. B T Bonnell (illustrator). 274 x 211 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When the downy-soft baby loon Gabe is hatched, life is perfect. His parents love him and take care of him, and Gabe has their undivided attention. Little Gabe is very, very happy. Until that all too familiar sound happens once again. Peck-peck-peck. Chip. Chip. Chip. Cheep, cheep. An egg cracks open, and his little sister is hatched. And Gabe's life is turned upside down. When Gabe notices his parents doting on their newest chick, he feels sad. Gabe also experiences jealousy, along with irritation at just about everything his baby sister does. In fact, Fluffy really bugs him, so Gabe resorts to picking on her. The universal feelings of sibling rivalry are told through the life of this adorable little fluffy feather-ball named Gabe. Read about Gabe's silly antics as he works through his insecurities, and learn how he truly feels when his little sister is in danger. Lizzie enjoys life in the U.P. of Michigan. Jack loves the rugged beaches of the Monterey Coast with waves crashing on the...
