Editor fired up by New Age

By Mr John Rippin

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 120 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. The author was a newspaper editor aged in his 50s when he started to take an interest in the New Age movement. This came as a surprise to family, friends and readers of his weekly opinion column. But he had been keeping a secret. Although for most of the time he was a rational person, for years he had had the occasional psychic experience, including lucid dreams. In his youth he had been exposed to the rigid belief system of a strict Christian denomination, and he was wary about becoming involved in alternative spirituality. But the time came when he could not resist reading a selection of New Age books, and he found that a bright new world opened up for him. After he had acquired his first two crystals there was no holding him back. He became passionate about dowsing and was soon using a pendulum for a wide variety of purposes, ranging from tracking lines of mysterious earth energies to deciding which bottles of wine to buy in the supermarket. He found that New Age is...
