And, above all, we may never forget that a nation which has won its freedom from dishonor with a great price, can only maintain that freedom by struggles and sacrifices equally great. These halcyon seas on which we float--O my countrymen, they are not always friendly to a nation s best well-being. The institutions which, at such cost, we have rescued from disintegration and ruin, will not long survive unless you and I are concerned as to those foundations on which they rest, and unless, above all, we watch with jealous eye whatever alien hand would abuse or pervert them. It was the tragedy of that struggle which we are here to-day to remember, that it was an internecine struggle. They were of ourselves who lifted the flag of revolt and disowned the authority of the Government; and it may be--alas only lately we have been reminded how easily!--that those in high places shall even be the apologists of the red flag of anarchy and of the red hands of its ensanguined followers. This day, this service, and most of all these our heroic dead, stand--let us here swear never to forget it--for the sanctity of law, for the enduring supremacy of just and equitable government, and so for the liberties of a law-abiding people! In their honor we come here, my brothers, to consecrate this monumental shaft. What, now, is that one feature in this occasion which lends...
